

— CHI HONOR ROLL —

As in the past, Lambda Chis are distinguishing themselves in the armed forces of our nation. Among these Brothers are many men of Chi Zeta. It is only right that they receive the recognition that they so rightly deserve. A permanent recognition plaque which will be called the Chi Zeta Honor Roll is being made by the undergraduates. This plaque will be hung in the reception hall of the chapter house where it may be readily seen by all guests and all visiting Brothers.

Letters have been sent to the families of all the Alumni of the chapter in an effort to determine the status of each man about whom there is a question. No man must be omitted. If your family has not been contacted and if you are in the service, we would greatly appreciate any information that you might be able to send us.

We sincerely thank you for making your Honor Roll a total success.

CHI MEN ABROAD

Roy Hammar, former High Tau at Chi and BMOC at Illinois, is now serving with the U.S. Army in the Signal Corps. For the past few months has been stationed in the Hawaiian Islands. Lieutenant Hammar, as he is now known, distinguished himself as one of two of the best men in his corps last year before his graduation.

Most of us remember Jimmie Stubner very well. He, too, graduated only last year and was commissioned in the Signal Corps of the Army the following summer. It has been unauthoritatively said that Jimmie is now in England serving with a special detachment of Americans in the R.A.F. He certainly deserves our heartiest congratulations. The men chosen were outstanding officers.

— CLASS — — of '46 —

In the past month, two new pledges have come into Chi Zeta. They are Joe Drabek and Jim Roberts.

Joe, '46, comes from Morton High School in Cicero, Illinois. While there, he was a letter man in soccer and football. He also claimed the presidency of the Saddle Club Activities and sports were not his only merits. Joe also held good standing in his scholarship.

Jimmie, '45, hails from the University of Louisville. As a freshman, he, too, was well accomplished scholastically. In high school Jim was a member of the National Honor Society. He was in the Science Club there and held key positions in Hi-Y and the DuPont High School Yearbook.

They replaced Wilbur Lewey who left school for an operation and Bert Jamison, who joined the Navy.

Sydney Wood, '45, was elected to Star and Scroll by the active chapter as recognition of his efforts in activities during his freshman year on campus. The Star and Scroll is a sophomore activity honorary fraternity which was founded for the purpose of bringing the various fraternities and their activity men closer together. The fraternity was founded on the University of Illinois campus in 1937 and, at present, has as members, thirteen national fraternities which are located on the campus.

On January 16, 1943, the Star and Scroll fraternity is having their annual winter forman dance which will be at the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity house. Bud Roderick and his orchestra will provide music for the couples. All alumni members of the honorary are urged to attend if they can possibly do so.
