These Decorations Greeted Homecomers Nov. 7

WHEN ALUMNI FLOCKED BACK IN DROVES to Chi Zeta and to the Illinois campus for Homecoming the week-end of Nov. 6 to 8, they found these attractive decorations waiting to greet them at "209." Mighty clever, if we do say so ourselves!

Hard Luck Hits I-M Grid Team

Sometimes things just don't break right, and that seems to be the case with our I-M football squad this year. Out of our first three games we dropped two, (both by one point) while we scored 31 points to our opponents 8.

It all started with the first game of the season which we lost by a 1-0 score. The only point being scored in an overtime period after the teams had fought to a scoreless tie during the regular game.

Next we came back to swamp Delta Sigma Pi 25-0. Brother Russ Phipps scored three times on aeri-als from Jim Chalfant and pledge Bryce DeVoss.

The other league game slipped out of our grasp by a score of 7-6. This time we were leading the Kappa Sig's 6-0 with 40 seconds to play

Jim Schuldt Takes Job As Intramural Director

Jim Schuldt, former University of Illinois basketball and baseball player, who received his Bachelor's degree last summer, has been chosen to head the Intramural recreational sports program here at the University.

He plans to carry on the duties of this office while continuing his graduate work in physical education.

In accepting this post, Jim has taken on one of the largest jobs of this type in the country. The I-M program here is very extensive and reaches into all groups of the University with almost every type sport offered for participation.
